

What important information about caring for the child do you wish you had known or been told sooner?

handle my son's last months. I would have preferred enjoying each day as much as possible. I don't think I could have related with my son, rather than spending all of his last months jumping from treatment to treatment. I wish my son did not have any lifelong illness.

I wish my son did not have any lifelong illness.