

Please tell us more about how finances have/had been affected and the impact on the different family members. Have you come up with any creative solutions?

Life is short, money isn't. The parents are from a middle class background in their little town. Olov's dad was fighting things and focused on him to us somehow.

We were blessed to have him in our church.

Friends and family were there but.