Can you please tell us more about having to decline an invitation because you tried but were unable to find somebody able to care for the child?

After a while. I was never invited only because I never week and which was hurtful and isolating